Conagra Brands Partners with United Way of the Midlands for Volunteer Projects

On Tuesday, June 5, 150 local employees of Conagra Brands' Supply Chain team will provide their time and talents to volunteer at 10 nonprofits in the Omaha-Council Bluffs metro area.

United Way of the Midlands (UWM) coordinated the volunteer projects to take place from 1 to 3 p.m., which include preparing a farm for planting, organizing food pantries, mulching and gardening, restocking and sorting a clothing facility and preparing meals. Agency representatives will be on hand to support the volunteers' efforts.

"Giving back is an integral part of our culture here at Conagra," said Rick Hansen, Vice President of Human Resources. "Our Supply Chain team represents a significant part of our roughly 1,200 employees here in Omaha. We're excited to include serving the local community as part of our agenda today."

One of the unique projects Conagra Brands employees will support is a golf tournament Girls Inc. is hosting for participating girls. Volunteers will help set up the event, golf with the girls, provide refreshments at hydrations stations and retrieve balls. Please join us anytime from 1 to 3 p.m. at Girls, Inc. of Omaha located at 2811 N. 45th Street. A UWM representative will be available.

UWM's community engagement team provides volunteer project support to a number of metro area companies and organizations. Conagra Brands' volunteer engagement will continue UWM's mission to impact poverty and make the Omaha-Council Bluffs community even stronger.

UWM's next community-wide volunteer project is coming up on June 21. "Day of Action" will include dozens of volunteers who will support local literacy efforts by reading with children who participate in area out-of-school time nonprofit programs. People who are interested can learn more about Day of Action by visiting www.unitedwaymidlands.org/DayofAction.
